

3rd Battlefield Coordination Detachment-Korea ROK COMMANDER BIOGRAPHY

COLONEL EUN-CHEOL KIM

COL Eun-Cheol Kim was born in Gwangju, Republic of Korea. He graduated from Korea 3rd Military Academy and was commissioned in 1986 as a ROK Army Field Artillery officer.

COL Kim taught as an instructor of North Korean Tactics at the Army College from December 2007 to November 2009. He also served as a Fires Doctrine Research officer at the Army College from December 2009 to June 2011. Leaving the Army College, COL Kim assumed command of Artillery Regiment of 71st Division from June 2011 to January 2013. Then he worked as a 5th Armor Brigade Chief of Staff from January 2013 to December 2013.

COL Kim currently serves as the 3rd Battlefield Coordination Detachment ROK Commander at Osan Air Base, Republic of Korea since January 2014.

COL Kim holds a Bachelor's degree of English from Honam University in 1986 and attended the Army College for O-6 Command Management program.

COL Kim's major awards and decorations include Letter of Commendations from ROK Army Commander in 2013 and from Corp Commanders on three separate occasions (2012 and twice in 2011).

COL Kim is married with two children.

